1. Austrians residing in the vicinity of Illnitz in Burgenland report that the Soviets are now leasing small farms from large USIA estates. It is reported that in order to acquire property from USIA, Austrian peasants are required to sign the Stockholm Peace Proclamation. Most of the peasants are said to be ex-Nazis and among the more prominent of USIA's new tenants are the Raizenboeck brothers who have just rented a large USIA farm near Frauenkirchen.
2. USIA is also leasing property in the vicinity of Podersdorf, Apetlon, Wallern, and Parfagen. An architect by the name of Erich Weizner is surveying the property to be leased.
